

THE CHALLENGE WORKSHOP

Zoom-based sessions (April 11 and 25, 2025)

Given by Virginia Wright, PT, PhD
Senior Scientist at Holland Bloorview Kids Rehab and Professor, Department of Physical Therapy, University of Toronto vwright@hollandbloorview.ca

April 11 (4 hours)

- 1400 - 1500 Welcome and introductions and additional background on the Challenge: structure, content, importance of well-targeted measurement and how the Challenge can help, administration process/testing philosophy
- 1500 – 1600 Guided Viewing of a Challenge video of a child with CP and potential clinical learnings about the child from this testing
- 1600 - 1625 BREAK
- 1625 – 1800 Scoring together of another child's Challenge video. Clinical discussion. Homework assignment for next session

April 25 (4 hours)

- 1400 – 1415 Review experiences with trying out Challenge items
- 1415 – 1515 Practice scoring together of video of child in GMFCS I
- 1515 – 1615 Practice scoring of Challenge video of child in GMFCS II
- 1615 - 1635 BREAK
- 1635– 1740 Practice scoring of Challenge video of young child and special tips of how to do
- 1740 - 1800 Further thoughts on application to clinical practice. How to access the Challenge training materials. Wrap-up questions and access to on-line course evaluation.

Challenge Website – <https://hollandbloorview.ca/research-education/bloorview-research-institute/outcome-measures/challenge>